Decree in Divorce.

A decree was yesterday filed by the Court granting a divorce on the grounds of desertion to Joseph B. Vernon, libellant, from his wife, Letitia Vernon, both of West Goshen.

L 12-27-1892

"A QUICK MATCH."

J. B. Vernon Divorced on Thursday and Remarried on Saturday.

A few days ago mention was made through the columns of the NEWS of the Court having granted an absolute divorce from his wife to Joseph B. Vernon, of West Goshen township.

The circumstances which led to the application for divorce were of a rather odd character. Mr. Vernon was first married about a year or more ago, and, it is said, he and his wife lived happily together. Finally she longed for the home of her parents, and at her request her husband took her there for a visit. Despite repeated appeals she afterward refused to return to her husband, and therefore he applied for and secured a divorce.

MARRIED AGAIN.

The divorce, as stated above, was granted about the middle of last week. It did not suit Mr. Vernon to remain in single blessedness long, nor did he. On Saturday last he bled himself to Trenton, in company with Mrs. Maggie Slider, a buxom lass of Philadelphia, where the twain were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. They arrived home that evening, and were immediately tendered a reception by a number of friends.
