L 3.7.1890

A matrimonial wave struck West Chester yesterday, and the bulk of it arrived at the residence of Rev. Joseph S. Evans, in the afternoon. Three couples were joined for life by that gentleman within three hours. The couples were George M. Burns and Florence Markle, of East Goshen; Joseph B. Vernon, of West Goshen, and Letitia E. Marshall, of Westtown; and Thomas C. Gough and Katie Masley, of West Chester.

Household Furniture, such as a stove, large copper kettle, &c. comprising a number of articles unnecessary to enumerate.

"A QUICK MATCH."

J. B. Vernon Divorced on Thursday and Remarried on Saturday.

A few days ago mention was made through the columns of the NEWS of the Court having granted an absolute divorce from his wife to Joseph B. Vernon, of West Goshen township.

The circumstances which led to the application for divorce were of a rather odd character. Mr. Vernon was first married about a year or more ago, and, it is said, he and his wife lived happily together. Finally she longed for the home of her parents, and at her request her husband took her there for a visit. Despite repeated appeals she afterward refused to return to her husband, and therefore he applied for and secured a divorce.

MARRIED AGAIN.

The divorce, as stated above, was granted about the middle of last week. It did not suit Mr. Vernon to remain in single blessedness long, nor did he. On Saturday last he bled himself to Trenton, in company with Mrs. Maggie Slider, a buxom lass of Philadelphia, where the twain were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. They arrived home that evening, and were immediately tendered a reception by a number of friends.
