

The aircraft was first flown in 1953. The first model was a 3 1/2-ton tubular structure lifted by two turbojets with the pilot sitting on top.

The plane that crashed was a modified version. It had been developed as an experimental machine.

Farmer Brings 87 Korean Orphans Here

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 28 (INS) — Harry Holt, Creswell, Ore., farmer brought another plane load of Korean children to Portland today aboard a DC-4 Korean National Airlines Transport.

The plane stopped over at the Seattle-Tacoma Airport with its 87 youngsters before dedicated the Great Emancipator were printed in an open letter in the school paper. In a letter of their own, the Democrats offered a cash reward to whoever brings back the head.

If it turns out a Republican stole Lincoln's head, the Democrats said, the reward money will be used to put it back on Abe's shoulders.

And if the head doesn't turn up, the Democrats promised to provide a new one. It will look just like Democratic President Franklin D. Roosevelt.
